

WILDFLOWER

Description:

On Palm Island you will find sugar white sand beaches, an abundance of coconut palms, peace, tranquility and the perfect location for that relaxing getaway you have been promising yourself. Also on the island are an exclusive resort and a few select private houses scattered along the sun drenched shores. Located in St. Vincent and the Grenadines, in the Windward Islands of the Caribbean Sea, this special place is adjacent to Union Island, the gateway into which guests arrive from other lands by plane or yacht.

Wildflower seems to be all glass. Sliding glass patio doors and large windows on each side of them allow you wonderful vistas, without even standing up. Whether preparing a meal in the kitchen, sipping a cool drink at the bar or relaxing on one of the sofas, you will be entranced by the varying blues and greens of the sea, the pristine beach stretching away from the doors, the ongoing parade of sailing yachts passing by. Two spacious and well-ventilated bedrooms, one with king size bed, the other with two singles, and each with large storage, dressing area and en suite bathroom afford comfort and privacy. It is ideal for a family or two couples.

Wildflower also boasts a large, well-equipped and newly renovated modern kitchen. Additional indoor space consists of dining and living areas, light and airy because of all the sliding patio doors and the very high ceiling. Outside is a wraparound terrace facing the beach and sea, outside shower for rinsing the salt off after sea bathing and a lovely desert-like garden full of tropical shrubs, flowers and coconut palms. Beach and lounge chairs as well as casual dining table for alfresco dining are all in place for your enjoyment.
